Judges: Brad Jones - Ogden, Utah and Jodie Moore - British Columbia, Canada

Membership Requirements Exhibitors: All exhibitors must have a current APHA individual membership to be eligible to show including Leadline. Joint and/or farm/ranch memberships will not satisfy the membership requirement.

Owners/Lessees: Horse owners/lessees must have a current membership that is an exact match to the horse's ownership/lease on record with the APHA at the time of showing to be eligible to compete. No other related memberships will be accepted to satisfy the membership requirement.

Amateur/Youth Ownership/Lease Requirements: In order to be eligible to compete at the APHA National Championship Show, all horses entered in all Amateur and Youth classes (except Leadline) must be owned or leased by the Amateur/Youth and/or Amateur's/Youth's family per Rule AM-020 and YP-015 respectively.

Solid Paint-Bred Classes: All Solid Paint-Bred individual working events (see list of acceptable classes in Rule SC-185.F) will be held concurrently with the corresponding Regular Registry class where applicable. These classes are indicated by a box on the schedule.

Scratches/Refunds – Entries & Stalls:

*There is no penalty for adding or scratching classes after a horse is entered.

*Horses scratched completely from the show will be charged a $25 processing fee (in addition to the non-refundable $35 office charge.)

*No refunds will be issued for the one-time $35 office charge per horse for any reason.

*Refunds will be issued for cancelled stalls minus a $50/stall processing fee. Absolutely no stall refunds will be issued after October 1.

All refunds will be processed within 30 business days of the end of the show.

Health Requirements: To comply with state animal health regulations and to ensure the health and safety of your horse, the following requirements will be strictly enforced for all horses attending the APHA National Championship Show.

Health Certificate – All horses must have a health certificate issued no earlier than September 20, 2019 by a licensed veterinarian from the state of origin. Be sure horses' registered names rather than barn names are used on the certificate.

Negative Coggins – All horses must have a Negative Coggins dated no earlier than April 19, 2019. Be sure horses' registered names rather than barn names are used on the certificate.

All horses are subject to inspection by the State Veterinarian at any time or if suspected of harboring a communicable disease.

Shavings: All stalls (including tack stalls) include 4 bags of shavings. If you need additional shavings, you may pre-order shavings on your stall reservation form if received by October 1. Every effort will be made to deliver pre-orders prior to exhibitor arrival. After October 1, all additional shavings orders must be done onsite at the South Point Trading Post.

Shavings are $11/bag. No outside bedding is permitted on the grounds. Orders are not accepted over the phone. For inquiries only, call the South Point Trading Post at (702) 797-8256.

Stall Mat Rentals: Stall mats may be pre-ordered on your stall reservation form if received by October 1. Every effort will be made to deliver pre-orders prior to exhibitor arrival. After October 1, all stall mat rental orders must be done onsite at the South Point Trading Post. Stall mats are $20/mat. Orders are not accepted over the phone. For inquiries only, call the South Point Trading Post at (702) 797-8256.

Feed Supplier: A variety of hay and feed brands are available for purchase onsite. Hours of operation are during show/move-in hours until 30 minutes following the end of show daily. Orders are not accepted over the phone. For inquiries only, call the South Point Trading Post at (702) 797-8256.

All-Around / High-Point Awards

Awards will be presented to the highest and second highest point earning horse and rider team in the following categories:

Walk/Trout Youth 5-10	Walk/Trot Amateur	Walk/Trot Amateur Solid Paint Bred
Novice Youth	Novice Amateur	Youth 13 & Under
Youth 18 & Under	Youth Solid Paint Bred 18 & Under
Amateur	Amateur Solid Paint Bred	Masters Amateur

Three (3) performance classes and a halter class are required to qualify for high point/all around awards.

Class Circuit Champion Awards

Circuit champion awards will be presented in each class. In the event of a tie, a tie breaker judge will determine the winner.

General Rules and Regulations This show will be conducted in compliance with the 2019 Official APHA Rule Book and supplements except as may be otherwise stated on the attached pages. The management reserves the right to decline any entry before or during the show without liability for compensation for reasons such as checks written with nonsufficient funds, stopped payment on check, poor sportsmanship, inhumane treatment of horses, harassment of judges, officials, secretaries, ring stewards, employees, and/or any other authorized representative of the show.

Sportsmanship/Conduct Negative conduct, including harassment, bullying, or any other form of unsportsmanlike conduct will not be permitted by the APHA, and any person engaging in such action or conduct will be disciplined to the full extent permitted by the APHA rules. Unsportsmanlike or irresponsible conduct or any other form of misconduct that is illegal, indecent, profane, intimidating, threatening, harassing or abusive is prohibited. The APHA will not tolerate such behavior and violators will be excused from competition and/or removed from the show grounds and are subject to further disciplinary action.

Final Interpretation of Rules The FINAL RIGHT to settle all questions or disputes arising during the horse show is reserved by the Show Management and all exhibitors, trainers, riders, or other participants therein, as a condition of admission, give unqualified consent to such methods of settlement and agree in advance to be bound thereby. In the absence of a specific rule and/or conditions not covered by this show premium, the final decision will be governed by the Executive Committee, and all decisions are final. Failure to comply with all rules will cause all fees to be forfeited and entry to be disqualified. All rules listed within this show premium pertain to every class of the show.

APHA Rule Variances

- SC-110.I - Line up and announce placings through 6th place under each individual judge in halter and rail classes. In all other scored and timed classes, individual judge's placings will not be lined up or announced in the arena. All judges' scoresheets will be posted for these classes.
- SC-175.M.4 - Grand and Reserve Champions are not awarded in halter.

Liability See APHA Rule GR-045 and GR-050. This release of liability includes the American Paint Horse Association, Horse Show Facility, the City Government and their officers and directors and show management. Officials and employees will not be responsible for any accident that may occur to, or be caused by, any horse exhibited at the show, or for any article of any kind or nature that may be lost or destroyed, or in any way damaged. Each exhibitor is responsible for any injury that may be occasioned to any person or animal, or damage to any property while on grounds, by any horse owned or exhibited by or in his or her custody or control, and to indemnify and hold harmless the American Paint Horse Association, the City Government, the Horse Show Facility, Show Management or any other sponsoring organization, if any, from and against all claims, demands, cause of accident, injury, or damage to person or property caused by the ownership exhibition or custody, or control of any animal exhibited. The APHA reserves the right to cancel, reschedule or rearrange any class or event, or part thereof, when such action is necessitated by an act of God, or other event or circumstance that is beyond the control of show management. The APHA will not be liable to any person or entity for damages of any kind whatsoever, which relate in any manner to, or arise out of, such cancellation or rescheduling.

Exhibitor Agreement Presentation of a signed entry form shall be deemed acceptance of the rules of and all other rules pertaining to this show. In the event of failure to sign an entry form, then first entry of horse or an exhibitor into the show ring shall be deemed to be acceptance of the show rules and current APHA Rule Book and NSBA Rule Book. I agree as an APHA member or trainer that I will be honest, fair and friendly. I will have respect for myself and others as well as respect for authority. I will be helpful, caring and considerate to others. I understand that I will be responsible for what I say and do; and that I am subject to disciplinary action if I am found guilty of unsportsmanlike conduct. Horses are entered at your own risk & are subject to APHA rules, under which these classes will be conducted. In case of death, accident, injury or theft, to the exhibitor, their family, horses or property, no claims will be honored against the American Paint Horse Association, Southwest Show Management, South Point Arena & Equestrian Center or any officers, directors or employees thereof.

Exhibitor/Spectator Cooperation All individuals are expected to cooperate with Show Officials at all times. Any individual who is delinquent in his responsibility in this area may be, along with his horse(s) or exhibit(s), excused from further competition and/or removed from the grounds. That individual will forfeit all previous winnings, entry fee(s) and other fees. See rules SC-070, GR-040.C, GR-060.D, YP-080.L.1.

Inhumane Treatment The APHA is committed to the humane and proper treatment of all animals. The welfare of the animal is the primary consideration in all activities. All animals shall be treated with kindness, respect and compassion at all times. Owners, exhibitors, trainers and all responsible parties shall ensure the health and well-being of animals in their care at all times including, but not limited to, handling, transportation, training, treatment and stalling. Per Rule SC-075 of the Official APHA Rule Book, no person on show grounds, including but not limited to, barns, stalls, parking area and show arena may treat any animal in an inhumane manner, which includes but is not limited to:

1. Placing an object in a horse's mouth so as to cause undue discomfort or distress;
2. Tying a horse in a manner as to cause undue discomfort or distress in a stall, trailer or when longeing or riding;
3. Letting blood from a horse;
4. Use of inhumane training techniques or methods; poling or striking horse's legs with objects (i.e. tack poles, jump poles, etc.);
5. Any item or appliance that restricts the movement or circulation of the tail;
6. Intentional inhumane treatment that causes a horse to bleed;
7. Failure to maintain an appropriate environment for horses' well-being.
8. Use of prohibited equipment, including, but not limited to: saw tooth bits; hock hobbles; tack collars; or tack hackamores; whips used for showmanship; war bridles or like devices; riding in a curb bit without a curb strap; wire or solid metal curb straps no matter how padded; wire cavesson; wire or cable tie-downs; bumper bits; metal bosals (no matter how padded); chambons; headstalls made of metal (no matter how wrapped or padded), twisted rawhide, or rope may not be used on a horse's head (3/8 inch rope may be used with a slip/gag bit); running martingales used with curb bits used without rein stops (running martingales may be used with legal curb bits as long as the reins have rein stops);
9. Excessive spurring or whipping;
10. Excessive jerking of reins;
11. Excessive fencing;
12. Excessive spinning (defined as no more than eight (8) consecutive turns in either direction);
13. Schooling over ramped oxers in reverse order (i.e., from highest to lowest instead of lowest to highest);
14. Schooling using rails higher than four (4) feet;

15. Exhibiting a horse which appears to be sullen, dull, lethargic, emaciated, drawn or overly tired;
16. If fresh blood is found on any mouth and/or body areas of a horse, (i.e. including but not limited to: barrel, flanks, belly, sides, shoulders) at any time the horse must be excused from the competition;
17. Applying excessive pressure on or excessively jerking of a halter lead shank or an allowed lip chain;
18. Any other treatment or conduct deemed by a show official to be inhumane or abusive. The standard by which conduct or treatment will be measured is that which a reasonable person, informed and experienced in generally accepted animal husbandry standards, equine training and exhibition procedures, would determine to be cruel, abusive and inhumane. The exhibition of a horse that has a cut or abrasion, showing clear evidence of fresh blood in the mouth, nose, chin, shoulder, barrel, flank or hip area, must be considered abuse regardless of how the injury was caused. Upon discovery by any show official of inhumane treatment, show management reserves the right to immediately disqualify the horse and exhibitor for the remainder of the show and/or remove them from the grounds and shall immediately report the matter to the APHA for further disciplinary action. This prohibition against inhumane treatment applies to APHA members and non-members. APHA members may be held responsible for the actions of their trainers, agents, representatives and/or employees. For violation of this rule, an individual may be disciplined, suspended, fined, denied APHA privileges, disqualified, expelled from show grounds and/ or expelled from APHA.

Photography & Videography Only photographers and videographers under contract with the APHA and/or employed by the APHA will be allowed to take photos or videos of any horse, exhibitor, owner, staff member, show official or others associated with the show during the APHA National Show. Persons directly related to or associated with an exhibitor may take photos or videos of the exhibitor for personal use only. No photos or videos of events or individuals may be contracted for sale other than through the APHA or official photographer and videographer under contract with the APHA. The APHA has exclusive rights to this event. Any reproduction for sale or promotional activities is strictly prohibited without expressed consent of the APHA. Outside media is invited to cover this event and must check-in with show management. As per Rule GR-030, "attendance at an APHA approved event, in whatever capacity, shall constitute authorization for APHA, its agents, designees, or assigns to photograph, video tape, televise, or record by other means (hereinafter referred to as "photographic material") any person or animal on the premises of an APHA-approved event, and shall further constitute authorization for the use of such person's name, voice and biography, or the name, pedigree and performance record of any animal on the premises (hereinafter referred to as "related information") in conjunction with any photographic material.
